

A Letter To God

1. The postmaster had mixed emotions while opening the letter. Explain.
2. What is ironic about post office employees helping Lencho?
3. How can Lencho's unwavering faith in times of adversity inspire us in our daily challenges?
4. Reflect how Lencho's reaction to the received money represents the human tendency of misjudging others. What learning we can impart in our lives from this?
5. What might have the postmaster thought about Lencho after reading his second letter?

Fire and Ice

1. What is the message of the poem Fire and Ice?
2. According to the poet, what does fire and ice represent? Do you agree with him?
3. Why does the poet find the concept of the world ending in fire more relatable than ice?
4. How can recognizing and addressing our own 'fire' (desires) and 'ice' (indifference) improve our relationships?
5. How can we use what we learn from "Fire and Ice" to solve the disagreements today?

Dust Of Snow

1. How does the poet react to crow and hemlock tree?
2. Why does the poet use such poetically uncommon bird and tree? What does it reflect?
3. What is the message that Robert Frost wants to convey to the readers in the poem 'Dust of snow'?
4. Why is the crow an important figure in this poem "Dust of Snow"?
5. How does the setting of "Dust of Snow" contribute to the poem's overall mood?